

DEAR LITTLE GIRL

WORDS AND MUSIC
BY ARTHUR ASHWORTH

PUBLISHED BY ARTHUR ASHWORTH
308 Union Ave. - Montreal, Canada
Printed in Canada

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

45,430

EDWARD JOHNSON
MUSIC LIBRARY

Dedicated to Miss Millie Bell

DEAR LITTLE GIRL

SONG

Words and Music by ARTHUR ASHWORTH

VOICE

PIANO

1. It
2. The

seems that in this world there is a sun - shine. That's made for eve-ry bo - dy great and hours I spend a - way from you are wast - ed. You filled an emp - ty heart with hope and small. But I have wandered loo - ly un - til this time. I love. With - out you, dear, the years can bring me no - thing. I nev - er seemed to find it at all. But now I re - al - ize just on - ly hope and pray to him a - bove When twilight sha - dow fall.

CHORUS

where that sun-shine lies. _____ Dear lit-tle girl how I cry for you, miss you most of all. _____

Dear lit-tle girl how I sigh for you. You, on-ly you drive my sor-rows away. Al-ways the same: sun-shine or rain. Sweet are the dreams that I dare to dream Com-ing to me like a ma-gic scene. I see Pa-ra-dise. When I look in the eyes of my sweetheart, My sweetheart, that's you.

